A Day in My Life

Hello, everyone! My name's César and I'm from Valledupar in the north east of Colombia. My home town is really beautiful and the weather is always hot!

I'm always really happy to go to school and I never get bored, because I get on very well with all my classmates and teachers and we have lots of fun!

Sometimes I'm tired and sleepy, because I wake up at 5 o'clock in the morning to do chores for my mum, but helping her makes me feel happy!

At 6 o'clock I have breakfast, then, I ride my bike to school and at 7 o'clock I start classes! After school, I'm really tired, so I have a rest. But in the afternoon, around 3 o'clock I feel more motivated and ready to study, so I do my homework. I usually finish my homework about 5 o'clock, and because I'm usually still feeling energetic, I go to basketball practice with my school team. I love playing basketball, but I'm disappointed if we lose; but then I go for a walk and I always feel better!

Cesar is from Valledupar, he goes to school and never gets bored... _____

Travel Blog: Colombian Cuisine

Posted by James Lee, august 31st

I am a Canadian traveller and I have just come back from Colombia. I loved my stay there. The food was a gastronomical adventure! I tried the paisa platter (bandeja paisa). It is prepared with red beans and served with eggs, and fried pork and minced beef. The dish also had rice and slices of fried plantain called patacón and was served with avocado. Personally I loved this dish, and also enjoyed it because it mixed a lot of flavours and nutrients. I supposed fried pork, minced beef and eggs contained a lot of cholesterol, but it was my first time in Antioquia, Colombia, it smelled delicious.

Después de leer el texto sobre el blog de viajes: Colombian Cuisine, responde las siguientes preguntas:

Did the Canadian traveller enjoy the paisa platter?

How is the paisa platter prepared and served? What ingredients are mentioned in the text?
